DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Matsuura et al. (Jap. Pat. No. 10262641)("Matsuura") in view of Nagao et al. (Jap. Pat. No. 7059553) ("Nagao") for the reasons set forth in the last Office action.

Response to Arguments

Applicants' arguments filed 02/25/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the claims are patentable because they are unobvious. No argument is made that the claimed preservatives are not notoriously well known. They in fact are notoriously well known food preservatives. Applicants are adding preservatives for their art recognized function and obtaining nothing unexpected. There is nothing in the prior art that teaches away from using preservatives.

Applicants submitted evidence asserting that it demonstrates unexpected results. There is nothing unexpected shown. Specifically, the added preservatives performed as preservatives are expected to perform. In comparison with the control, the results are substantially identical. It is noted that no statistical analysis were performed on the data.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
